10. Rent and Changes to the Rent

Each month in advance, the Customer shall pay the rent set out in Schedule 1.

The rent includes public fees and charges imposed by public authorities applicable at the time the Rental Agreement was executed, with the exception of VAT. 11. Due Dates for Paying Rent, Interest on Overdue Payment and Costs

The Customer shall pay the full amount of rent so that the funds are in the bank account specified in the invoice on or before the due date for paying the rent.

Payment terms are fourteen (14) days from the invoice date. Interest on overdue payment is determined pursuant to the Swedish Interest Act (1975:635).

Halda may personally collect, or assign the right to a third party to collect, delayed payments, debt collection costs and handling charges, as well as interest on overdue payment.

If payment of the rent is delayed by over thirty (30) days from the due date, Halda may charge the rent from the Customer's card and/or shut down the rented product.

12. Insurance

Halda is responsible for ensuring that the rented product is properly insured. The Customer is liable for the excess and any damage not recoverable from the insurance. Upon written request by the Customer, Halda shall specify the damage that is not recoverable from the insurance.

possession, Halda shall deliver an equivalent rented product to the Customer. The replacement rented product may be second-hand, but must be in the same or better condition than the original rented product. The replacement rented product must be delivered after the Customer has given Halda written notice of the damage and Halda has inspected the rented product. - defects that have arisen as a consequence of an act or omission in breach of these General Terms and Conditions or due to an event of force majeure affecting the Customer;
- ordinary wear and tear to the rented product;
- defects or repairs to defects caused by external factors, such as accidents (including collisions), electrical or air-conditioning breakdowns, damage caused by thunder or lightning, or water damage.

The Customer shall, at its own expense, return the damaged equipment to Halda without delay, and it must be received by Halda ten (10) business days after the Customer notified Halda of the damage. If the Customer fails to return the equipment, Halda shall be entitled to invoice the Customer for the sale price of the equipment in accordance with the price list applicable from time to time.

15. Damage to and/or Destruction of the Rented Product

Regardless of the cause, the Customer is liable for the destruction, loss or damage of/to the rented product. The fact that the rented product has been destroyed or damaged shall not release the Customer from its contractual obligations. The Customer shall immediately inform Halda if the rented product is damaged or destroyed.

16. Damage Caused by the Rented Product

The Customer is liable for all personal injury and property damage caused by the use or transportation of the rented product, unless the insurance covers such injury and damage.

17. Termination of the Rental Agreement

Halda shall be entitled to terminate the Rental Agreement, including rental terms, with immediate effect, and to have the rented product returned to its possession, if:

- the rent is paid more than thirty (30) days after the due date;

- the Customer has provided Halda with misleading information or has concealed information that could have had an effect on the Parties entering into the Rental Agreement or the terms and conditions of the Rental Agreement;
- the Customer is otherwise in breach of the terms and conditions of the Rental Agreement and fails to remedy the breach immediately after having been requested to do so.

The termination of the Rental Agreement will only be valid if Halda informs the Customer of the termination in writing.

If the Rental Agreement terminates as a consequence of a breach of contract by the Customer, Halda shall be entitled immediately to invoice all fees and charges for the remainder of the fixed term of the rental and rental terms. Any fees and charges the Customer may have paid in advance will not be returned after the Rental Agreement has effectively terminated.

18. Returning the Rented Product

Within fourteen (14) days of the effective date of termination of the Rental Agreement, the Customer shall, at its own risk and expense, return the rented product to Halda in the condition prescribed in the General Terms and Conditions.

If the Customer's car is replaced and a new rented product is installed in the new car in accordance with section 9 of the General Terms and Conditions, the Customer shall, at its own risk and expense, return the replaced rented product to Halda in the condition prescribed in the General Terms and Conditions.

If the Customer fails to return the rented product in accordance with the Rental Agreement, Halda may invoice the Customer for the sale price of the rented product in accordance with the price list applicable from time to time.

Further information about returning rented products is contained on Halda's website, www.halda.se.

19. Intellectual Property Rights

All intellectual property rights relating to the rented product and its software are owned by Halda and/or by a third party.

Within the scope of what is permissible under the licences that may have been granted to Halda, in return for the contractual fees and charges, Halda grants the Customer the non-exclusive right to use the software in the rented product for the term of the Rental Agreement for its contractual purposes. The Customer may not transfer, modify, alter, adapt, join together, produce derivative works of, dismantle, reverse engineer, or copy the software.

20. Limitations of Liability

Halda is liable solely for direct losses and not for the indirect damage, costs or losses incurred by the Customer, such as loss of profit, loss of income, third-party loss, or claims deriving from a reduction or breakdown in production, sales or turnover.

Halda's aggregate liability in damages for recoverable losses is limited to the maximum amount the Customer has paid in rent for the six (6) month period preceding the damage.

Halda is not liable for costs incurred by the Customer or a third party due to any act for which the Customer is responsible or any defect not due to Halda. Halda may charge the Customer for the cost of repairing such defects.

21. Force Majeure

Unless proven otherwise, events of force majeure include natural disasters, breakdowns in public services, telecommunications or public electricity distribution, strikes or other equivalent events. A force majeure event affecting one of Halda's subcontractors is regarded as a force majeure event affecting Halda in the event the subcontractor's contractual obligations cannot be performed by another subcontractor without unreasonable expenses or significant delay being incurred.

22. Personal Data

Halda and the Customer are data controllers for their respective processing of the Customer's personal data for the purpose of performing the Rental Agreement. In respect of Halda's services to the Customer, personal data is processed according to the agreement approved by the Customer, which is contained on Halda's website, www.halda.se.

23. Reference

Halda may use the Customer as a reference in its marketing.

24. Assignment and Amendments

The Customer may not assign the Rental Agreement or any right under the Rental Agreement to a third party without Halda's written consent. A transfer fee in accordance with the price list will be charged to the Customer for an assignment of the Rental Agreement or a right approved by Halda and the new Customer will be charged a processing fee. Halda may assign and transfer its rights and/or obligations under the Rental Agreement and the title to the rented product to a third party.

Halda may amend the General Terms and Conditions. Amendments take effect ninety (90) days after the Customer has been informed of the amendment.

25. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

The Rental Agreement is governed by Swedish law. Disputes arising out of the Rental Agreement shall, in the first instance, be settled by negotiations between the Parties. If the negotiations do not lead to a resolution of the dispute, at the initiative of either Party the dispute shall be settled in the Swedish courts, with the Stockholm District Court as the court of first instance.

Schedule 3: Description of the Equipment Replacement Services

1. If a defect entitling the Customer to replacement equipment arises in the rented product used by the Customer, the Customer must contact an authorized Halda installer and deliver the rented product to the installer for an inspection. The installer must then try to find the defect and, if the defect cannot be repaired, the installer must install the replacement equipment.
